

The NASDDDS Alumni Association is open to individuals who have served as the director of a state program for people with intellectual/developmental disabilities. Membership provides alumni with the opportunity to receive up-to-date information about state programs for people with disabilities and to network with previous and current directors.

Association membership is now offered at NO CHARGE to former directors!

As a NASDDDS Alumni Association member you will receive:

A venue for potential recruitment for temporary or permanent positions within states

Opportunities for social sessions with current directors and alumni

Subscriptions to regular publications such as the Community Services Reporter, Federal Perspectives, State News Briefs, and Federal News Briefs

Notices of the association's annual and mid-year conferences

Inclusion on the NASDDDS alumni contact list

Conference registration fees at the reduced member rate

MENTORS NEEDED! NASDDDS is seeking alumni association members willing to serve as peer mentors to new or existing directors offering counsel and support to those in this unique and pivotal role. Contact karol snyder at ksnyder@nasddds.org for information.
